

Makers of Transcendental Theatre

Lucky Fin Productions was founded in 2005. Our debut production was the one woman musical show, Bewitched; which chronicles the life of Ruth Etting and features the songs of Rodgers and Hart. It was a fine debut with the show picking up double award nominations at The Buxton Festival and five star reviews at The Edinburgh Festival.

As the Director of Lucky Fin I aim to create theatre that transcends the drudgery and monotony of everyday life and sprinkle the stage with glamour, entertainment and the pleasure and the pain of the human condition.

I pay special attention to the forgotten voices of women of the past. Those ladies that lived thrilling, eventful lives and yet who have somehow been quietened by the passage of time.

I believe the theatre is the creator of an extraordinarily entrancing magic.

I believe the pursuit of beauty in plays, film, architecture and art has been greatly neglected in recent years.

I believe the uplifting feeling that can be achieved through aesthetic art is hugely enriching.

Lucky Fin Productions endeavours to transcend the mundane and create theatre that warms the soul.

Enjoy.
